You agree to be aware of the physical elements involved and solely responsible for any decision in respect to your child's/children's fitness. You will not hold Magpie Sports liable for any permanent injury, sustained disability or death mishap arising from your child's/children's participation activities delivered by Magpie Sports. You the parent/carer give permission for ambulance and medical attention for your child should the need arise and will accept the costs as your own.

PAYMENTS, REFUNDS & CREDITS

Magpie Sports services require payment in advance for all sessions.

- Soccer Academy operates under a rolling agreement and those registered will be allocated a permanent place in the group on each continuous block unless we are otherwise notified by the parent/carer that a customer is not returning. If failed to do so before the first session of the new block commences, Magpie Sports have the right to charge for the full block. Payments are to be made at the last session of each half term block at latest for the following block. No refunds or credits are available for sessions unattended by customers. Any sessions cancelled by Magpie Sports or venue providers will be credited to the next block.
- Holiday Club payments are to be made using the online shop or by BACS before the first day customers are booked in to attend. No refunds or credits are available for days unattended by customers. Bookings cancelling within 1 week of attendance will not be eligible for refund, however can be credited to future bookings.
- One 2 One payments are to be made at the start of each block. Sessions cancelled within 1 week of notice will be credited but not refunded.
- Sports Party payments are to be paid in full within two weeks of the party date. A deposit may be required to cover venue costs in advance upon booking.

PARTICIPATION RULES

- A Magpie Sports coach has the right to cancel participation of an individual during activity in the event their actions are not in line with the safekeeping of the group or another individual.
- Magpie Sports will not tolerate any form of dangerous or negative behaviour including physical harm or verbal bullying. Any individual that may be risking the well-being of other participants will be immediately removed from the session and may risk having all participation excluded from any future Magpie Sports services. Profanity is also condemned.
- Mobile phones, iPads, tablets and laptops are not permitted at any Soccer Academy session or Holiday Club day. If children are in possession of these, they must not be used and remain out of sight in bags for the duration of activity.
